

VIRTUAL SPRING FORUM
APRIL 8, 2022, 10-NOON

Overview of Metadata Batch Editing/Searching Tools

with Michael Sarmiento (NVCC)

Virtual Coffee Break with subject-specific break out sessions

Academic Ebooks
the Good, Bad and Ugly
with Jackie DeLong (SU)

Have a bee in your bonnet? RSVP and
moderate a coffee
break out session

Open to all
RSVP

Collections
& Technical Services
(CaTS)

VIRTUAL SPRING FORUM
APRIL 8, 2022, 10-NOON

- 10:00: Welcome and logistics
- 10:05: Overview of Metadata Batch Editing/Search Tools

Michael will provide a broad overview and examples of using metadata batch editing/searching tools: MarcEdit, MatchMARC, and Notepad++. These tools help catalogers to do more tasks and save time.

Michael Sarmiento is currently working as Head of Cataloging Librarian at Northern Virginia Community College. He has previously worked as a cataloging manager at Anne Arundel Community College and as a metadata specialist at OCLC.

- 10:45: Q&A with Michael
- 11:00: Coffee Break out Sessions - *topics tbd
- 11:25: Academic Ebooks, the good, bad, and ugly

Jackie will discuss ebooks and OCLC's WMS system. Lessons learned regarding their use and useability in an academic setting.

Jackie DeLong is currently the Resources Librarian at Shenandoah University. She has worked in systems and technical services in Indiana, Maryland, and Virginia.

- 11:45: Q&A with Jackie
- 11:55: Wrap Up